ENO TROUBLE TO ANSWER QUESTIONS.

Articles of Incorporation
—OF—
The Bisbee West Copper Mining Company.

Know all men by these presents that we, Daniel Innes, H. J. J. Loneragan, J. F. Boynton, P. E. Weaver, and A. S. Robbins, all of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of becoming incorporated under the laws of the State of California, and do hereby adopt the following articles of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
The name of this corporation shall be "The Bisbee West Copper Mining Company."

ARTICLE II.
The names of the incorporators of this corporation are Daniel Innes, H. J. J. Loneragan, J. F. Boynton, P. E. Weaver, and A. S. Robbins, all of Los Angeles county, California.

ARTICLE III.
The principal place of business of this corporation shall be in the city of Bisbee, in the county of Cochise and Territory of Arizona.

ARTICLE IV.
The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by this corporation is and shall be the buying, selling, leasing, owning, holding, possessing and operating of mines, mills, mill sites, real estate and personal property; the construction and operation of mills and smelters for the treating, smelting, refining and reduction of ores and minerals; and the purchase and sale of the general dealing of and in ores, minerals and minerals; to acquire, own, hold, sell and deal in personal property and merchandise, and generally to own, hold, acquire and deal in any property and business.

ARTICLE V.
The amount of capital stock authorized by said corporation shall be four hundred and fifty thousand ($450,000) shares of the par value of one dollar ($1.00) per share, and the time when and conditions upon which it is to be paid are as follows: All stock issued must be paid for in cash or property upon issuance, and shall thereafter be non-assessable for any purpose whatever.

ARTICLE VI.
The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the date of the filing of these articles of incorporation for record in the office of the County Recorder of Cochise county, Arizona Territory, and the termination thereof shall be twenty years from the date thereof, unless the same be renewed pursuant to the laws of Arizona before the termination thereof.

ARTICLE VII.
The affairs of this corporation are to be conducted by a board of nine (9) directors, to be elected annually on the first Tuesday of October of each year; provided, however, that as soon as practicable after the filing of these articles of incorporation the stockholders shall elect a board of directors, who shall hold office till the first Monday in October, 1900, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Each stockholder of this corporation, in all elections for directors and other officers, and on the consideration of all questions at stockholders' meetings, shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him, as given on the books of the company, each share of stock being entitled to one vote.

The officers of this corporation shall be a President and Vice-President, who shall be directors of said corporation; a general manager and secretary and treasurer, and such subordinate officers and assistants as may be deemed necessary.

ARTICLE VIII.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability for which the corporation is at any time to contract shall be the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

ARTICLE IX.
The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be exempt from all corporate debts, and the stockholders of this corporation are hereby exempted from all liability for any debt of said corporation.

ARTICLE X.
This corporation shall have an office for the transaction of its business in the State of California, at the city of Los Angeles therein, and said board of directors may meet and transact the business of said corporation at said city, and the annual meeting and elections may be held thereat.

ARTICLE XI.
Section I. The board of directors shall have the power to make, adopt and amend by-laws for the government of the affairs of the corporation.

Section 2. The board of directors shall have the power to borrow money, execute corporate notes or bonds of the corporation, and to secure the payment of the same by mortgage on property of the corporation, or in any other manner designated by said by-laws.

ARTICLE XII.
The corporate stock of this corporation shall be forever non-assessable, and each certificate thereof shall state upon its face the number of shares represented thereby, and that the same is forever non-assessable.

ARTICLE XIII.
These articles of incorporation may be amended at any annual meeting of the stockholders, or at any special meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose, by a majority vote of the stock of the corporation then issued in favor of such amendment. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 21st day of October, 1899.
